

A.

This text is an extract from the book Matilda written by R. Dahl. There are three characters a little girl {called} Matilda, her mother is only mentioned and her father.

B.

- 1) * The little girl wants to read her book.
* She wants to leave the table and have supper / dinner in the dining-room {in order to read her book.
(so that she can read her book.

in order to: afinde (par) → afin que.

- * He wants her to stay (at the table) with them so that all the family can eat together in front of the TV.
2) I quote from the text line (10) "Matilda didn't trust himself to answer him so she keeps quite".

I quote from the text line (9) "She could feel the anger boiling up inside her". anger = la colère

- 3) The equivalent of "finished" (l. 4) it's "over"
The equivalent of "continued" it's "went on"
The equivalent of "an adult" it's "grown-up"
The equivalent of "answered angrily" it's "to snap"
The equivalent of "to try" it's "to have a go".

- 4) a) wrong c) right e) wrong
b) right d) right f) wrong
g) right.