

Doom Puzzle

doom-metal.com

35 Doom bands to recognise.

- | Across | Down |
|---|---|
| 1 They crowned the sun on their first full-length. | 2 It sounds like Lemmy very high on drugs. |
| 4 Labyrinthine Extreme Doom. | 3 Continuance of grief. |
| 7 They covered a song on a tribute to Paradise Lost. | 4 They're greatly indebted to Thergothon. |
| 10 Sludge Drone with a female bassist. | 5 The singer of this Funeral Doom band died not long ago. |
| 12 God of agriculture. | 6 Unique mix of gore lyrics and melodic Doom. |
| 13 If Milton hadn't existed! | 8 Their vocalist is one of the most esteemed on the Funeral Doom scene. |
| 15 Sad worshipping masses. | 9 A syndrome characterized by muscular rigidity. |
| 17 One of Leif very first bands. | 11 Italian band that shares some similarities with Esoteric. |
| 18 Sludge Doom from Chicago. | 14 Ultra heavy Doom band that has a taste for late-night walks. |
| 21 Panic was once their name. | 16 The name of the songwriter's other Doom project means 'to kill'. |
| 22 A band which really took off when it borrowed the name of its singer. | 19 One of the very first funeral paced Doom Death bands. |
| 23 One of the many projects of one of the most prolific Doom songwriters. | 20 A band that disappointed a lot of early fans. |
| 24 Dark Doom from Chile. | 25 Paragon of Ambient Doom. |
| 26 Gregory Peck played that part. | 27 Lovecraft is his main inspiration. |
| 28 One of the fathers of Sludge. | 33 Mysterious Russian entity. |
| 29 A band that shifted from Funeral to Sludgy Mathcore. | |
| 30 She should be dead by now. | |
| 31 Bass, drums, vocals and that's all for this ultra heavy Stoner Doom duet | |
| 32 English Doom Death band. | |
| 34 Black/Doom band whose name evokes a poem by Edgar Allan Poe. | |