Notes for THOMAS ROBERTS:

Thomas Roberts was in Dover, New Hampshire as early as 1623, as he was chosen "President of the Court" in 1638, replacing Captain John Underhill, who was expelled for various crimes. He also held various minor town offices in Dover. He owned property on the east side of Dover Neck, New Hampshire.

Thomas Roberts was a Quaker a long time in good standing, he possibly disowned his sons John and Thomas, who were constables in Dover, for being too strict with the Quakers.

Thomas arrived in Pomroy's Cove, possible in New Hampshire, in 1623 as a passenger aboard the "Providence".

Oct 1692 in Eastham, Barnstable Co., Massachusetts. She married RICHARD RICH 1661 in Strafford, New Hampshire, son of RICHARD RICH and SARAH YORK. He was born ca. 1640 in Dover, New Hampshire, and died Oct 1692 in Eastham, Barnstable Co., Massachusetts.

Notes for RICHARD RICH:

Richard Rich was on the Tax rolls for Dover New Hampshire from 1671 thru 1675, and is listed a "Mariner" in Dover. There is also a possibility that he is descended from royalty in England.

Richard Rich died at sea.

(information below from Kathleen Vanderpool of Bluefield, WV)

Richard Rich of Dover Point (Piscataqua), NH, and of Eastham on Cape Cod, in the Plymouth Colony, a mariner, first appears in the New England records on 5 Dec. 1667 when he witnessed the sale at Piscataqua of part of the ketch "George and Samuel", New Hampshire Deeds, Vol. 2, Page 142a, he died in October 1692. He married 24 Feb. 1670, Sarah Roberts, who died before October 1692. She was the daughter of Thomas Roberts of Dover Point, New Hampshire.

Thomas Roberts of Dover, in his will dated 27 September 1673 and proved 30 June 1674, mentioned "my son-in-law Richard Rich, the husband of my dearly beloved daughter Sarah" to whom he gave "my dwelling house wherein I now dwell, lying and situate in Dover, together with all and singular, the out housing, orchards, planting land and pastures and I appoint my said son-in-law, Richard Rich to be my whole and sole executor." New Hampshire State Papers, Vol. 31.

In Oct. 1674, Richard Rich was a witness to an indenture in Boston, and in the following month he bought land at Kittery, Maine. In April 1681 he was living at Dover, when under covenant to build at Hilton's Point within a limited time, he bought land from Robert (the text says Mason, but I believe that it was probably Robert Manson, another relative of mine, who also lived at Kittery, Maine at that time.) Mason. However, on August 23 of the same year, Richard Rich was admitted as a townsman of Eastham, on Cape Cod. No reason has been found for this sudden removal from his established home at Dover, but the advantageous maritime privileges at Cape Cod and the threatening attitude of the Indians at Dover may have led him to take this step.

Children of SARAH ROBERTS and RICHARD RICH are:

22. i. DEACON JOHN¹⁸ RICH, b. 1665; d. 1747, Eastham, Barnstable Co., Massachusetts.
23. ii. RICHARD RICH, b. 1674, Dover Point, New Hampshire; d. 05 May 1743, Truro, Barnstable Co., Massachusetts.

21. DR. JOHN¹⁷ GREENE (RICHARD¹⁶, RICHARD¹⁵, ROBERT¹⁴, JOHN¹³, THOMAS¹² DE GREENE, MARY¹¹ TALBOT, AUKARET¹⁰ LE STRANGE, MARY⁹ FITZ-ALAN, RICHARD⁸, ELANOR⁷ PLANTAGENET, HENRY⁶, EDWARD I KING OF⁵ ENGLAND_, HENRY⁴III, KING OF ENGLAND, JOHN³ LACKLAND, KING OF ENGLAND, HENRY²II, KING OF ENGLAND, GEOFFREY OF¹ ANJOU) was born 1585 in Bowridge Hill, Gillingham, Dorset, England/Gillingham, England, and died 07 Jan 1658/59 in Warwick, Rhode Island. He married JOAN TATTERSHALL 04 Nov 1619 in St. Thomas Church, Salisbury, England, daughter of RICHARD TATTERSHALL and MARGARET FOX. She was born 1598 in Gillingham, Dorset, England/Gillingham, England, and died 06 Apr 1635 in On the ship "James".

Notes for DR. JOHN GREENE:

John Greene, came from Salisbury, County Wilts, the first of the name in New England. He sailed from Southampton, April 6, 1635 on the ship "James" and reached Boston June 3, 1635, with his wife and seven children.

He was a Surgeon in Salisbury, England. For a short time they lived in Salem, Massachusetts. August 1, 1637, he was charged with speaking contemptuously of the authorities in Massachusetts and was fined and "enjoined not to come into the jurisdiction of Massachusetts". From his refuge in Rhode Island, he wrote a letter to the court at Mass. charging them "with usurping the power of Christ and the Churches and Men's Consciences." etc.

He was one of twelve to whom Roger Williams deeded land bought of "Canonicus" and "Miantonomie"; also one of the original twelve members of the First Baptist Church. In 1642 he bought land called "Occupassuatuxet" of Miantonomie. This land remained in the family until sold to John Browne.

January 12, 1644 he and twelve others bought of the Indians for one hundred and forty four fathoms of Wampum the present town of Warwick. On September 12, 1644, he and others of Warwick were ordered to appear at Boston on complaint of some Indians. They all refused to obey, and in consequence, soldiers besieged the settlers in a fortified house, and several men were taken prisoners. All were carried to Boston for a trial, except John Greene, who escaped.

He was one of the thirteen original proprietors of Providence Plantations; went to a Commissioner to England in 1644; to the Court of Commissioners from Warwick for a period of five years, 1652 to 1657, and was Magistrate at the General Court of Trials, 1655 to 1656. *1
