

27/12/2013

COMMUNITY & CONTENT MANAGER (M/F)

WOM is the leading agency in word-of-mouth in Portugal. WOM – Word-of-mouth Marketing Agency is undergoing a process of strong international growth and expansion. WOM develops marketing campaigns for international brands using the oldest and most effective sales tool – the word-of-mouth.

We intent to integrate 4 Community Managers in our team, who will be handling communities and marketing campaigns in several European and South, Central and North American countries, in a 12 months trainee program with the possibility of incorporation in the company (Estágio profissional remunerado).

We are looking for dynamic professionals, with great communication skills and team spirit. The applicants must have a Bachelor's degree or higher in the fields of Marketing, Business Management or Communication. The level of "native" or "proficient" in the language of the community to manage is mandatory. The communities' languages and respective references are as follows:

- English (Ref EN)
- Spanish (Ref ES)
- French (Ref FR)
- German (Ref DE)

An advanced level of English is valued in all applications and references.

Develop your skills in a fast-growing company, with the possibility of incorporation and career development, in a young and multicultural environment.

The applicants must send their Curriculum Vitae in English to geral@wom.pt, referencing the desired opening (language reference) in the e-mail's subject.