

AEDES received a Request for Services for the Philippines: Technical Assistance for the impact assessment of Local Government Code on Health Care Service Delivery (Framework Contract BENEf 2013 lot 8 Health).

Planning: Starting tentatively 13 October 2014

Profiles requested:

Key expert 1: Team – Leader /Decentralisation Expert – 30 working days

- Category and duration of equivalent experience

- Category 1 expert with preferably 15 years, but at least 12 years' experience on national and local governments policy review and formulation
- Proven in depth knowledge and experience in at least four different developing countries
- Experience in South East Asia and the Philippines is an advantage

- Education

- Possess a PhD and Master's degree in development economics or equivalent

- Experience

- Longstanding experience with decentralisation processes and public administration reform
- Experience in advising at senior decision level of relevant Ministries and Institutions
- Experience in academic research /lecturing in the area of fiscal decentralisation and governance issues
- Proven knowledge about international best practice in devolvement, able to compare with other similar countries and bring in knowledge of world-wide innovative approaches and lessons learned
- Is author or co-author of more than 20 publications, articles/studies or monographs published preferably in internationally renowned journals, in books, etc, relevant to the assignment and covering different geographical areas.
- Proven experience with devolved health sector and health service delivery issues
- Able to access and interpret government budget documents and expenditure reports dealing with central government expenditures as well as with subnational government expenditures.
- Possess good communication and facilitation skills, as well as qualitative interviewing skills
- The expert should possess the ability to communicate complex trends and concepts in simple, clear, engaging language, with attractive graphic and mapping images and exhibits

Key expert 2: Decentralisation / Public Health Expert – 29 working days

- Category and duration of equivalent experience

- Category 1 expert with preferably 15 years, but at least 12 years' relevant experience,
- Proven in depth knowledge and experience in at least four different developing countries
- Experience in South East Asia and the Philippines is an advantage

- Education

- Possess a PhD and Master's degree in public health or equivalent

- Experience

- Possess proven deep understanding of health care systems strengthening in developing countries, specifically Universal Health Care principles
- Possess proven knowledge about health financing,
- Possess proven knowledge and experience regarding the use of the subsidiary principle related to devolvement of responsibilities and functions in the health sector
- Able to access and interpret government laws and regulations guiding decentralisation to subnational government units with a focus on health
- Knowledge about health insurance systems is an asset
- Experience in academic research and or lecturing on decentralisation and governance issues related to the health sector
- Proven knowledge about international best practice, able to compare with other similar countries and bring in knowledge of world-wide innovative approaches and lessons learned regarding devolvement in the health sector
- Possess good communication and facilitation skills, as well as qualitative interviewing skills
- Experience in advising at senior decision level of relevant Ministries and Institutions
- Is author or co-author of more than 20 publications, articles/studies or monographs published preferably in internationally renowned journals, in books, etc, relevant to the assignment and covering different geographical areas.
- The researcher should possess the ability to communicate complex trends and concepts in simple, clear, engaging language, with attractive graphic and mapping images and exhibits

If one of these positions interests you, please let me know as soon as possible and send me your updated CV in EU template before Friday 30 May – tslaa@aedes.be