IMPORTANT :

The conditions of access to the international courses are laid down in the prospectus entitled "International Courses" which is available from diplomatic posts from ENA. It may also be downloaded from the website www.ena.fr.

Admission on to the international courses at ENA and IRA is based on the application form, a written test, a test in reasoning and knowledge, a specialised test and a pre-selection interview organised by Embassies.

Eligible candidates are invited to an interview conducted by an officer of the ENA or IRA.

Admission is granted by the director of the school involved during final meeting of ENA's and IRA's selection board.

To prepare for the tests, a bibliography is available in the brochure "International cycles". The previous year's examination tests can also be downloaded from the internet (www.ena.fr).
