

The RomeMUN conference will take place in Rome (Italy) from the 14th to the 18th of March 2015, in cooperation with eminent national and international institutional organizations and UN agencies based in Italy, which will host the event. The number of delegates who will take part to the event as well as the number of committees that will be represented is increasingly growing. On the 2015 edition, we are expecting 2000 delegates coming from more than 100 countries and 5 continents who will represent the UN member states in ten different UN committees. We endeavor to spark a tremendous international debate upon the original topics that we are putting forward this year. This year, among the committees that will be played, there will be a committee completely role in Italian language.

Committees represented:

ECOSOC - "Sustainable development in the framework of the post-2015 agenda, the role of NGOs and civil society"

GA ECOFIN- "Adapting the agriculture development to insure food security and nutrition goals. Advances, Priorities and Regulations"

GA SOCHUM- "Eradicating extreme poverty and hunger through gender equality and women empowerment in post 2015"

SECURITY COUNCIL - "Weather warfare. Natural resources as a cause of conflict and the use of weather modification techniques for military purposes"

ICJ - "Germany v. Italy, Question on Jurisdictional Immunities of the State"

FAO - "How to feed the world 2050. Creating a sustainable framework to manage food-security and to combat poverty"

CEU- "A new framework for food waste and food loss"

UNESCO- "Education and awareness on nutrition problems. How to mobilize commitment to solve them"

UNEP- "Impact of climate change on biodiversity"

UNICEF- "How to combat extreme children malnutrition"

(This committee will be entirely conducted in ITALIAN)
