

Business Litigation Law Firm Chicago

The Velasco Firm works effectively and honorably to resolve issues and conflicts in the areas of business law and family law. Our approach is both professional and direct. We listen. We educate. We set clear, coherent and reasonable expectations. We evaluate possible outcomes. We explore realistic timelines. Of equal importance, we confer about strategies to control costs.

The Velasco Firm was founded to address the corporate, personal and familial needs of its clients.

Our Services

Business & Litigation : The Velasco Firm serves as business lawyers to entrepreneurial and family owned businesses. We help clients in forming business entities, drafting both personal and business contracts, drafting leases, settling membership and ownership issues, drafting employment policies, resolving business disputes, reviewing operating agreements, and providing legal representation in court, arbitration and mediation venues.

As experienced outside general counsel, The Velasco Firm works proactively to reduce internal risks and manage external legal needs of small business. Our outside general counsel work is cost effective, efficient and responsive.

The Velasco Firm is your value-added contact point for advising, drafting and negotiating. We understand your business, your needs and your bottom line.

The Velasco Firm helps today's business owner reap the rewards from today's succession planning. Solve tomorrow's problems today: management, ownership and taxes.

Succession planning allows business owners to resolve equity and shareholder concerns as well as deal with the technicalities of buy-sell agreements, insurance and estate planning.

The Velasco Firm also offers services related to foreign investor participation in the EB-5 government program and asset protection, often essential for all business owners and investors.

Personal & Family : The Velasco Firm offers services related to all matters of personal and family law issues, including divorce, child custody & support, civil union agreements, premarital agreements, post decree mediation, asset protection and EB-5s. At The Velasco Firm, we pride ourselves on our communication, planning and professionalism. We inform our clients of what is possible; and we present the most direct plan for achieving the possible.

Business & Litigation Issues

From forming the corporation to taking part in litigation, The Velasco Firm provides services for any and all business needs.

Personal & Family Issues

The Velasco Firm offers services related to all matters of personal and family law issues, including divorce, child custody & support, civil union agreements, premarital agreements, post decree mediation, asset protection and EB-5s.

James Velasco

James Velasco is the founder of The Velasco Firm. He received his undergraduate, graduate and law degrees from Loyola University Chicago where he was a Presidential Scholar and a member of Alpha Sigma Nu, the national Jesuit Honor Society.

James has spent the past three decades litigating complex legal issues. Although he has extensive trial experience, his primary goal is to facilitate the best settlement possible for the firm's clients and to avoid the high cost of litigation whenever possible.

Before attending law school, James taught Classical Greek, Latin and English on Chicago's North Shore.

James Velasco has been both an educator for over 11 years and a trial attorney for more than 30 years.

Brittany Roebke

Brittany Roebke is an attorney at The Velasco Firm LLC. Brittany received her undergraduate degree from Truman State University and her Juris Doctorate from Chicago-Kent College of Law.

Brittany was awarded the President's Scholarship from Truman State, an academic based scholarship that covered the full cost of her undergraduate tuition. She was also awarded a full tuition scholarship from Chicago-Kent.

During her time in law school, Brittany became a Center for Conflict Resolution Certified Mediator. She also worked as an extern for the Honorable Michael Panter in Parentage and Child Support Court and as a clerk and legal researcher at a family law firm. During law school, Brittany also received the CALI "Excellence for the Future Award" in Pre-Trial Litigation.

For more information please visit

<http://www.thevelascofirm.com>