  - or per e-mail at the following address: insectoramaseraing@gmail.com.

N.B. : in case of an e-mail reservation, make sure you mention all the required information as on the registration form (first and last names, physical address,...).
On arrival you will be asked to produce and sign your registration form (already filled in).
4. Payment can either be made cash on the day of the fair, (you'll be asked at the entrance or before you start displaying your material) or prior to the fair by bank or post transfer to the following account :

« Amis de l'Air Pur » - BE75 0010 2399 5351 (BIC : GEBA BE BB) - (without forgetting to mention « Insectorama » with last & first name)
5. As a reminder, the organizers will attribute the placements according to :
  - 1° the receipt of the reservations,
  - 2° the good flow and organization on the premises
  - 3° the demands of the exhibitors (if possible!).
6. Be aware that the number of available placements is limited, so only the booking order will decide on the acceptance of an exhibitor or not.
7. Unless stated otherwise, and out of respect for the last visitors, exhibitors are requested not to dismantle their stands before 15.30.

RULES AND REGULATIONS :

1. The entomological fair « Insectorama » entails the sale and exchange of insects, arachnids and myriapods, whether naturalized (stuffed / preserved) or alive.
2. By extension, the material for breeding, hunting, collecting and studying them is also allowed as well as documents (books, magazines...) dealing with the study of insects.
3. It is therefore STRICTLY FORBIDDEN for participants to display or sell items that do not satisfy the criteria mentioned above.

Examples : reptiles, amphibians, mammals (such as naturalized bats...), plants... etc.
4. The sale (or exchange) of protected species (cf appendix) is also STRICTLY FORBIDDEN*.

\ For the protected species under the Washington Convention, the sale is allowed if the restrictions imposed by this legislation are respected.*
5. The organizers reserve the right to check whether the displayed and/or sold merchandise satisfy the prescriptions of the items mentioned above.
If the displayed merchandise doesn't satisfy these prescriptions, we will require it to be withdrawn straight away. In case an exhibitor should refuse to do so, we will reserve the right to close the stand immediately (and without any refund), and we will refuse any further participation.
6. Prices should be clearly indicated in Euros.
7. Any specimen that would have been repaired will have to be signaled.
8. Any exhibitors bringing in living material will obviously have to make sure no animal will be able to escape. They remain responsible for any potential consequences and the organizers' responsibility can't ever be questioned.
9. The organizing committee refuses to accept any responsibility for any accident, theft or damage within or near the premises / exhibition hall.
10. All exhibitors are supposed to be in order with the legislation relating to the commerce and import of merchandise. The organizers also refuse to accept any responsibility for that matter.
