

Job application

Graphic Designer

Culture For Citizenship is a Tunisian organization that was formed in May 2011 and obtained the visa on 23 August in 2011. The goal of this non-profit organization is to promote human rights and active citizenship through cultural activities and events.

Culture for Citizenship has launched the project “Awaken Youth”. This project will engage 75 university students from 5 Northern governorates (Beja, Bizerte, Jendouba, El Kef, Tunis) in a workshop series focused on accountability and transparency.

This project is 100% financed by The U.S.-Middle East Partnership Initiative (MEPI) of the State Department. MEPI offers assistance, training, and support to groups and individuals striving to create positive change in the society.

Culture For Citizenship is looking for a graphic designer

Job responsibilities:

- Conceiving the graphical charter for the Awaken Youth project
- Conceiving the communication material related to the project and the local activities.

Criteria and skills

- Student or recent graduate in multimedia
- Creative
- Has an experience on graphic design (volunteering, internships...)
- The ability to work with a team and coordinate effectively with the staff members
- The motivation to participate in the realization of an associative project.
- He/she can work as a freelancer

Starting date: As soon as possible

Salary: 1000$ (whole period)

If you are interested, please send your CV and portfolio to cfc.awakenyouth@gmail.com mentioning “Graphic designer” as subject for the email, no later than 4th of March 2016.

