

MAKE

- FOR : go in the direction of
- UP : reconcile, put on cosmetics, invent a story
- UP FOR : compensate
- OUT : write a cheque, pretend, progress, kiss and pet, be able to see, understand, someone's nature
- OFF WITH : steal and escape
- OFF : try to find a reason for something, have a opinion about something
- OUT TO BE : to claim, to assert
- UP YOUR MIND : decide
- DO : accept something less satisfactory because there's no alternative

GO

- OVER : review success / be received well
- DOWN : decrease / reduce
- WITH : Match or suit a company, someone have a boy/girlfriend
- WITHOUT : abstain from / not use or need
- ON : continue / happen
- OFF : explode / begin, start(alarm), become angry quickly, stop(machine)
- IN FOR : participate
- INTO : discuss detail at length
- BACK ON : not keep promise word

LOOK

- FORWARD : Aware or anticipate with pleasure
- AFTER : Take care of
- AHEAD : think of the future
- BACK : remember the past
- DOWN ON : consider as inferior
- INTO : examine investigate
- ON : be a spectator at an event
- FOR : try to find something
- UP : admire
- OVER : to inspect

COME

- OVER : visit
- ACROSS : to find by chance / discover
- DOWN : with become sick
- INTO : inherit
- UP WITH : imagine, invent , produce
- DOWN ON : to scold / punish
- ABOUT : happened
- ACROSS AS : to seem / appear
- UP : something unexpected happens
- UP WITH : have an idea / suggestion

BRING

- UP : To mention, to raise children or animals
- ABOUT : to cause something to happen
- AROUND : to change a view in someones view or opinion
- BACK : to take back or return something
- DOWN : to fall or collapse
- OFF : to succeed at something difficult, to accomplish something that seemed impossible
- OUT : to come out release to stress or highlight something
- TO : to revive consciousness

B.Y.O : Australian useage,short for Bring Your Own

GET

- OFF LIGHTLY : to experience less suffering than expected
- ALONG / ON WITH : have a good relationship
- UP TO : do
- OVER : recover from
- BY : manage in spite of the difficulties
- AWAY WITH : to be successful in the something bad
- OUT OF DOING SOMETHING : avoid doing something you don't want to do
- RID OF : throw away something unwanted
- THROUGH TO : communicate something successfully

TAKE

- OVER : assume controle of (The smaller firm was taken over its larger competitor.)
- IN : learn (There is so much to take in when starting a new job.)
- UP : start a new activity (I decided to take up golf after joining the company.)
- CARE OF : be responsible for (I'll take car of the arrangements for tomorrow's meeting.)
- OFF : remove (He took off his jacket when he came home from work.)
- OUT : dispose of (Take out the garbage when you leave, would you?)
- BACK : retract (I'm sorry I called you a fool. I take it back.)

HANG

- UP : put something on the wall, put down the phone when finished
- ABOUT : to spend time in a place
- AROUND : to spend time in a place doing nothing
- ON : to wait (informal for "Just a moment", hold on)
- ONTO : to keep something
- OUT : to spend time with friends relaxing
- (HANGING) IN THE BALANCE : to be in a precarious state

KEEP

- AROUND : continue to possess or keep near you
- AT : continue with something (usually difficult)

- AWAY : prevent from gaining access; not allow near
- BACK : maintain a safe distance
- DOWN : A. not vomit B. repress or muffle
- FROM : refrain from doing
- IN : not allow out
- OFF : A. not walk on something B. not talk about something
- ON : continue
- OUT : not allow someone to enter
- TO : remain steady or faithful to something
- UP : A. prevent from going to bed B. maintain a continuous action or state
- UP WITH : A. move at same rate or pace B. stay informed, current, up to date

PUT

- ASIDE : to save
- AWAY : to store
- IN : to make
- IN FOR : make a request
- OFF: post pone, to delay - disgusting
- THROUGH : to connect by telephone

BREAK

- AWAY : to leave a group
- DOWN : A. end negotiations B. begin to cry C. stop working D. have physiological problems
- IN : A. wear or use something new B. interrupt C. enter unlawfully
- IN ON : interrupt
- INTO : enter unlawfully
- OFF : A. end relationship B. stop speaking about something
- OUT : A. happen suddenly, violently B. get a rash C. use for celebrating
- OUT OF : escape
- THROUGH : advance in science, medicine social issues etc.
- UP : to separate with someone or something

TURN

- AROUND : change (reverse) direction
- DOWN : A. refuse an offer or application B. reduce volume
- IN : A. submit B. go to bed
- INTO : change from one form to another, transform
- OFF : A. deliberately stop working (a stove, TV, etc.) B. something non pleasing or off putting sexually
- ON : A. expected attack B. start to use TV, radio, car, etc. C. cause sexual excitement
- OUT : A. produce B. switch off a light C. attend as audience D. end up being (finally discovering)
- OVER : give to authorities or rightful owners
- UP : A. increase volume or capacity of a device B. find unexpectedly