The future perfect simple

The form : Will + have + verb in (the past participle)

Uses : We use the future perfect to say that :

- 1)-An action will happen before an exact time in the future.

Example : By the year 2020, they will have built a great skyscraper in Morocco.

2)-An action will happen before another action in the future.

Example : Before the boss arrives, the secretary will have written the letter.

The form : Had + verb in (the past participle)

Uses : We use the past perfect when we have two actions in the past and we want to mention which one happened first:

- We put the first action in the past perfect.
- We put the second action in simple past.

Examples : 1)-I had studied English before i graduated.

2)-My brother had taken a degree before he went to canada.

3)-When i arrived, the lesson had already begun.
