Biography

Formed in 2014, "The Juicy Juice" is Vincent Rolland (aka "excess") and Michael Evans.

"Holly's creepy night" is the first album of the band; it is a five tracks E.P. featuring a remix by Nannue Tipitier ( he usually works into "minimal" music style ) .

"Holly's creepy night" main title were co-written by Michael and excess, the rest of the album were written and composed by excess, who produced the E.P.

A second mix were realised, entitled "excess mix", also composed and produced by excess.

During promotion of this E.P., the band played on stage at very different places and "Gibus Café" were an important step, as a first real stage.

The importance of the 80's plays a key role in their work, especially for their first E.P. : Influences like Michael Mann's serie "Miami Vice", the music channel MTV or the 8/16 bit era of video games.

Michael Evans is the singer of the duo but he also plays as an actor in movies, such as "Low life" by Nicolas Klotz. Also a breakdancer.

excess is a composer, producer and work on mixing ( plus visuals ). He also have a solo project : excess.
