

Salon CCC: Planning

CONCEPT

Inspired from the french litterary salons of the xviii th century, we aim to create a society of cultural creatives to promote ideas of our generation through all mediums. An Art exhibition, Talks, Debates with the speakers, a collaborative project and live concerts mixing electronic and acoustic music.

By combining those various mediums and inviting vanguard creators to showcase their work we aim at reuniting people from all sectors of activity to share, discuss and develop new forward thinking ideas.

By introducing people to new territories we want to grow people's vocabulary through this cultural exchange with fellow forward thinkers of all cultures. And all together gather collective creativity within a network to exchange knowledge, skills and ressources towards the realization of ambitious projects.

Artists have the power to project themselves in the future and we want them to share their sensible vision of our society. The selection will be eclectic to show the rich variety of multiculturalism.
