

EXAMPLE VISIT

If you are in Malaga for a few hours or days and your interests are:

- ✓ knowing more about the Spanish culture,
- ✓ seeing the main emblematic spots in the city-centre and
- ✓ having a few tips for cheap/free activities

a basic 3 hour-visit could include, for example the following steps:

Meeting point

Plaza de la Marina, Malaga (next to the fountain).

Main spots (for the example visit)

During your stroll in the old town, the local will tell you stories and curiosities about Malaga, its traditions and customs. As the visit is just for you don't hesitate to ask him all your questions.

You will pass by these main emblematic spots:

- Calle Larios (Larios Street): The 5th most expensive commercial street in Spain and one of the main arteries of the city centre.
- Mercado Atarazanas (Atarazanas Market): An awesome spot to buy fresh products, enjoy fresh tapas and feel the Spanish spirit, warm and friendly.
- Plaza de la Constitution (Constitution Square): One of the main squares in Malaga and where many important events take place.
- Plaza Uncibay (Uncibay Square): A very animated square in the city centre at almost any time of the day.
- Teatro Cervantes (Cervantes Theatre): Where the Malaga Spanish Film Festival takes place every year.
- Plaza de la Merced (Merced Square): Probably the most important square in Malaga, where the artist Pablo Ruiz Picasso was born, and where you can enjoy a drink in the sun, on a terrace of one of the numerous restaurants in this square.
- El Teatro Romano (The Roman Theatre): That is still used nowadays as a theatre some days of the year and as a cinema during some summer days.
- La Alcazaba (the Muslim Fortress): from which you can enjoy a great panoramic view of the city. An elevator is available for those who don't want to climb it.
- Bodega Pimpi (Pimpi Restaurant): Probably the most famous restaurant in Malaga, great spot to eat and very beautiful place that many great people visited.
- La Manquita (Malaga Cathedral): One of the symbols of Malaga with an incredible architecture.
