TRILOGY OF PLEASURE

Just in time for truffle season, this first edition will take us to Turin for a few days to experience Italian art, gastronomy and winemaking.

Let's meet at the 2018 edition of Turin's Artissima art fair. Through a few exclusive meetings and tours, we will be able to appreciate the wealth of the private contemporary art collections, which form an integral part of Piedmontese art of living.

A region of rolling hilltops at the foot of the Alps, Piedmont is one of the key areas of Italian gastronomy and winemaking.

White truffle and Barolo, two treasures of the Langhe area, naturally add to its renown. But many other marvels await us in the cantina and wine estates of this blessed region...

From 2 to 5 November 2018

JUDITH SOURIAU

An art critic and consultant specialised in contemporary art, Judith Souriau has worked for several museum curators and events (Centre Pompidou, Nuit Blanche, etc.). In particular, she has been publishing in Art Press, CANVAS (Dubai) and the Cahiers du Musée national d'art moderne (Centre Pompidou art journal) since 2008.

After managing Art Paris Art Fair (Grand Palais) VIP Relations, Judith Souriau created Untitled Consulting to share her expertise with collectors and corporates. She provides advisory and analysis to help her clients getting the best of today's international creation.

In 2018, La Fugue and Untitled Consulting joined forces for a series of original journeys, offering an enlightened look at the artists, networks and secrets of the art world.

YOUR TRIP

FRIDAY 2 NOVEMBER – PARIS / TURIN

Upon our late-morning arrival in Turin, we will go to Artissima contemporary art fair, where our art advisor Judith Souriau will present her favourites and the essential works of this 25th edition of the famous Italian contemporary art event.

We will settle into our rooms in the late afternoon.

Exceptionally, a very reputable private club will open its doors to us for dinner, which will be an opportunity to taste some of the region's finest wines.

SATURDAY 3 NOVEMBER – TURIN

In the morning, we will visit one of the greatest Egyptological collections in the world at the Academy of Sciences. We will then visit the Museo Ettore Fico, a former abandoned factory converted into a contemporary art museum.

Lunch in a well-known gastronomic institution of Turin, then free time in the early afternoon.

Later that day (early evening), we will enjoy a private view of to the Artuner 2018 project with the young collector and entrepreneur Eugenio Re Rebaudengo.

After the visit, we will share a cocktail dinner with internationally renowned collectors, especially invited by La Fugue and Untitled Consulting to discuss about the issues of an art collection today.

SUNDAY 4 NOVEMBER – TURIN / BUSCA / MONTEMAGNO

Not far from Turin, the hills of the small village of Busca house the astonishing Gaïa collection, the fruit of Bruna and Matteo Viglietta's passion for 20th century art. It comprises more than 100 works that we will discover privately. Over lunch, just a few kilometres from Busca, you can feast your eyes on the region's diverse landscape before discovering an exquisite former silk factory.

In the evening, we will head to Montemagno, the castle of Count Ascanio Calvi di Bèrgolo, which is one of the most beautiful castles in Piedmont. There, we will share a large dinner with a focus on truffle, in the company of the site's owners.

MONDAY 5 NOVEMBER – TURIN / PARIS

In the morning, a prestigious contemporary art collection will open its doors specially for us.

We will then be welcomed to the brand-new Nuvola Lavazza, recently awarded for its innovative and environment-friendly architecture.

Lunch, then late-afternoon departure for the airport.
